As One Goes Around

It had everything.

In its day it was as modern as advanced construction could make it actually reflect. The rooms were large, the heating plant excellent and it was dignifiedly furnished in a near-elegant manner. It made a hit for a short time and then it began to slip and never stopped. It was the old six-story Windsor Hotel, off Laramie street, in Denver, Colorado. A liberal city administration came into power and the badlands began to creep toward The Windsor. Cheap saloons, cribs, brothels and shooting galleries got a foothold. People seeking a hotel to register at for a stay in Denver began to understand the surroundings were not the kind their families should occupy. A hold-up or two happened and then several murders occurred in that vicinity. Trade dropped off. The dining room was closed. The management, in hopes of keeping the rooms filled, reduced rates, but all to no avail. It degenerated into a rat and tan rooming house and the last time I saw The Windsor, the fine hostelry had taken on the earmarks of a structure that could never come back. Fundamentally there was nothing wrong with The Windsor. It was simply a case, like that of a man or woman, getting a bad name and not being able to overcome it.

Albuquerque, New Mexico, right from its start, was a go-ahead city. The men, there were not many of them, who started the town—I remember Neill B. Field, Wiley M. Weaver and Frank Sturgess—took the position Albuquerque was going to be a real city. Mossbacks were relegated to the outskirts of the town. Aldermen were elected to the city council who stood for doing things. Streets were laid in properly and were wide; cement sidewalks were put down and meowings about not being able to pay for them, when coming from property owners, were disregarded and the city stepped in and charged the improvement against the land and sold it, if necessary, to meet the obligation. Albuquerque was brilliantly illuminated at night. Sewers were put in right from the start. Shacks were not tolerated and a municipal garbage system was accepted as a natural necessity. A fine city water system was constructed. Livestock was not allowed to stray at large and an efficient police force went on duty and did things. The town was wide-open but not allowed to get away from law and order. Albuquerque soon had 10,000 population. It jumped to 20,000, then 50,000 and now it is approaching the hundred thousand mark. It reflects sensible city government citizens insisted upon having and a community of people who would back their city councilmen up.

There is no place more often recalled in Montana stories of pioneer life than The Castle, at Helena. It stood at the head of State street and was not a large structure. The Castle had a number of cupolas and two entrances. Lillian Ashley ran the resort and she usually had seven or eight good looking girls in the bagnio. Beer was $1.00 a bottle and wine was $5. Lillian Ashley never permitted any open obscenity. The remark of Lillian Ashley one night, when two of the girls grew a little loud, for years provoked a smile when retold in Montana. Lillian Ashley, coming into the ballroom and noticing what was taking place, observed: "Remember, you are ladies, girls." That admonition restored order. It was at the Castle many of the big deals in the Clark-Daly-Heinze legislative battles were hatched and Lillian Ashley saw to it she got her cut. I was in the City of Mexico some years ago when I happened to pick up a copy of the Anaconda Standard and observed in it Lillian Ashley had sold The Castle and was going elsewhere to live. The story was Lillian Ashley got $100,000 for The Castle and, right after she sold it and moved away, the Redlight Abatement law came into effect and the value of The Castle melted.

I was sitting on a three-legged stool one night in a thatched hut of a sugar cane plantation in the center of the Island of Cuba, listening to some Cubans sing to harp music when I got my first-hand illustration of natural history health-guarding. Rats bring disease and Havana had just been wrestling with a Yellow Fever outbreak and there was an open season on rodents. Boats brought rats from infested cholera ports to Havana and rats spread onto plantations. Of a sudden I heard a commotion above my head and a rat darted along the roof pole. At its tail was an enormous snake, probably eight feet long. The rat and the snake dropped almost at once the roofpole evidently had slipped and both were on the ground at the same time. I remember an old Cuban woman, quickly made a swipe at the rat with her cane, but showed no desire of trying to strike the big reptile, which did not let up in its pursuit of the rat. Longer residence on the Island taught me plantation orders were not to kill snakes, as they were exterminators of the fever breeders and had to be protected. There is a peculiar, sickening odor that comes from rattlesnakes, but the stench that came from the coming and going of the big rat-chasing reptile that night in the hut was something unbelievably nauseating.

BOONVILLE, July 15.—Reports from Ukiah General Hospital from "Dick" Cotton and Ralph C. Tinker, who were seriously burned in a powder explosion July 3 in the woods at the Charles Lumber Co., are Mr. Tinker will be released from the hospital this week but will have to return for dressings some time. Mr. Cotton is not so fortunate. His burns were much more serious than Mr. Tinker's and will doubtless require skin grafting, which is a long and painful process. His hands were shredded in the blast and they will have to be grafted, Besides many body burns Mr. Cotton's face and head were, also, badly burned, except his eyes which, by some happy miracle, escaped injury. His stay in the hospital is sure to be a long one.

Faithful Wife Comes Often.

Mrs. Cotton, who is employed at the Charles Lumber Co. as bookkeeper, has been driving over each morning to carry on her duties here and returning to Ukiah every evening during the past week.

Need Much Care.

Both Mr. Tinker and Mr. Cotton have been receiving blood plasma and penicillin and are doing as well as could be expected considering the seriousness of their condition. The explosion was caused from a spark from a match dropping into a 25-pound keg of powder. One stick of dynamite also exploded.

Lieut. Burger-Wife Visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale Burger, of Yorkville, have as guests their eldest son and wife, Lieutenant (jg) and Mrs. Stanley Burger, of San Diego. Burger and Mrs. Burger will be here a few weeks. Lieut. Burger is on terminal leave.

Mrs. M. Benton, of Fresno, is a guest of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benton, at their Philo home. Mrs. Benton is on vacation and operates a Dental X-ray office in Fresno and has been in that business many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baughn, of San Francisco were valley visitors early in the week and were guests of the former's brother, Ben Baughn, and Mrs. Baughn at Philo.

Hunting A Home.

Irvin Studebaker was a Ukiah visitor Tuesday. He had expected to come back that same evening but car trouble prevented the Boonville-Williams bus from completing the trip that day. The night bus arrived the following morning. Ernest Pike is the present driver on the Williams-Boonville line, replacing Donald Brooks, who is driving on the Fort Bragg-Santa Rosa line. Mr. Pike's sister, Miss Dorothy Pike, is here with him and they are trying to locate living quarters. They are from San Jose.

Have A Boy.

A son was born Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horn at Ukiah General Hospital July 8. This is their first child. Mr. Horn is employed at the Charles Lumber Co. in the woods.

Mrs. Don McCallum and small daughter, Donna, of Fort Bragg, are guests of Mrs. McConnell's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Johnson, at their home near Boonville.

NEW BUSINESS SHIFT RUMORS BEING HEARD

Purity Company May Not Build On West Perkins Street

EYEING S. STATE ST.!

G. M. Mann Anxious To Build On Lots In South Ukiah!

A situation is quietly developing here which may influence a switch in the business section of the city. It involves locations on South State street which had not been figured on.

What Is Heard.

One story is that The Purity Company, which some time ago acquired a large site on West Perkins and Oak streets, will not use the property they bought as a market site but, actually, are looking for a location on the west side of South State street, close in. The property believed to be favored by the chain store runs through from South State street to Oak street and has a great deal of parking space.

No Details Obtainable.

Nothing definite has been given out locally but there is enough to make the story sound extremely plausible. The lots The Purity Company bought almost two years ago, actually, do not permit any extensive parking area. The land adjoins Montgomery Ward Co. store and has quite a frontage on West Perkins street, but that thoroughfare is narrow, and South Oak street is today carrying a capacity lot of cars.

What Is Related.

A story one hears is that negotiations have started with Charles Camino, who acquired the "Bill" Stewart South State street lots not long ago. The Camino property joins the land lately purchased by the Gus and Ann eating house and now being used by it.

Sough Norgard Site.

It has only been a few weeks since an attempt to purchase the Norgard estate property on South State and Stephenson streets was made, but the Norgard property is tied up by estate proceedings and cannot be sold until next year.

A New Theatre.

On the heels of the rumored desire of The Purity Stores Company to get a location on South State street comes the definite announcement George M. Mann is very anxious to get started on the erection of his new theatre on the large South State street property he bought about the time the war started and which he has not been able to improve with erection of a moving picture theatre because of inability to obtain materials.

Is Too Small.

The State Theatre, now operated by Mr. Mann in his Redwood Theatres string here, is not large enough to handle the business offered.

To Operate Both.

As The Republican Press gets the story, Mr. Mann, who owns the State Theatre now used by him, will not, after he opens his new showhouse, keep the State Theatre dark, rather he will open it certain nights of the week so that all the business offered may be taken care of.

A Good Straw.

There is a decided need of more theatre space for this community right now. The town is growing rapidly and it is not unlikely, if a proper showing is made, the Government may free materials which would allow Mr. Mann to go ahead with the badly needed amusement place.

More Lumber Seen.

One development, just at hand, is the Redwood mills have opened and this will, accordingly, provide a large amount of lumber, which has not been obtainable in the Redwood Empire the past six months.

Means A Lot.

With a Mann Theatre being a certainty and with the recurring rumor The Purity Company may locate on South State street, prospects for that part of town are taking on an alluring aspect.

SISTER AND BROTHER ON A LONG JOURNEY

Guy Williams and his sister, Mrs. J. C. Christy, are leaving within a few days on an auto trip which will take them into the Rocky Mountains and keep them away a number of weeks. Mr. Williams has been absent from America many years and intends to thoroughly see the Rocky Mountain country while on the trip with his sister. This week Mr. Williams is in San Francisco where he will purchase an automobile to use on the contemplated tour.

NEW MANAGER

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hayden and children arrived in Ukiah from Modesto where Mr. Hayden has been acting as manager of Mr. Mann's Theatre and has assumed the management of The State Theatre here.

APPLE BUYERS OFFER $80 TON

Anderson Valley Grower Says Crop Small Fruit Fine

Thomas Ornbaun, one of Anderson Valley's successful ranchers, was in town the first of the week and stated that, while the apple crop in that section was a little lighter than it was last year, the quality is exceptionally good.

Offered $80 A Ton.

Mr. Ornbaun said apple buyers had already appeared in the valley and he had an offer of $80 a ton for his crop. The offer was made on a basis of the buyer sending in a crew and taking the run of the orchard at that price.

YOUNG MAN SUFFERS VERY SERIOUS BURNS

Robert Ruddick, employe of The Farmers' Club, while repairing his automobile in the car pit at the Farmers' Club Sunday about four o'clock, sustained severe burns. The lucky presence of V. S. Collins, another Farmers' Club employe, probably saved the victim from more serious burns. Mr. Collins helped Mr. Ruddick out of the pit and then rolled him on the ground and threw dirt on his clothing. The Fire Department was called and extinguished the flames in the pit.

ANXIETY FELT CONCERNING A PICKET THREAT

Peaceful Resumption Of Business Is Hope Of Taxpayers

CLOSED SHOP DISLIKED

Union And Non-Union Workers Fairness Policy Favored

Special Correspondence of The Press

FORT BRAGG, July 15.—The coast people, outside the Unionists on strike, are almost 100 percent in favor of having the woods and mills reopened. The fact wages have been again raised, that hours are shorter and work steady is used as an argument by the taxpayers the shutdown should not longer be allowed to continue.

What They Say.

People contend, if a man wants to work, he should be allowed to and that compulsory-forcing a worker to pay tribute to a Labor Union, is un-American. On the other hand, these same people will tell you, if it is the desire of a man to be a Unionist and he elects to so be, that, too, should not be interfered with.

Against Closed Shop.

Outside the rabid Unionists there is no support here for the Closed Shop. I have talked to many people on the coast and found a very few who support the strike, even in a qualified way. Fort Bragg businessmen have been hit hard by the loss of the big local payroll this community has always enjoyed. They would much prefer to not become involved in the controversy, if they can avoid doing so, but they are not pleased over a continuation a Union Demand for a Closed Shop be forced on old-time employes who are entirely satisfied with wages and working conditions and desire a chance to be free of the idlenesss which they have been compelled to live under the past six months.

Bad Days Ahead.

Businessmen are not fooled by the fact conditions have not yet been bad because of the shutdown. They appreciate that an unusually large amount of money is in circulation and those who have it, in a great many cases, are spending it freely. They cannot help but observe that a tourist and vacationist flow of money, the like of which the coast has never before approached, exists, but they also fully understand that winter will be upon them and, if the mills and camps are not operating, whatever money they may be able to take in at this time, will rapidly disappear when the real tightening up comes.

Are For Peace.

Of the situation here in Fort Bragg The Advocate-News' comment is:

According to statements mailed by various Redwood Lumber producers to their employes, the mills will be started as soon as possible, with or without the co-operation of the striking labor unions. The letters stated operations must be started soon, and due to the fact the "Union Shop" argument has caused a cessation to negotiations there is only one alternative . . . that of starting operations with as many former employes, union or non-union, as possible, and filling in with new employes. Quite naturally, there is considerable talk concerning the "picket line," and when operations start there is every reason to believe a picket line will be maintained. It is hoped, however, there will be no violence, but in case there is, either by the pickets or men returning to work, the sheriff's office will step in and take charge. Sheriff Broaddus has issued the following statement:

"It has come to my attention lumber mills are planning on re-opening in the very near future. Anyone desiring to work has the privilege and right to do so. All laws will be strictly enforced and any violators will be arrested and prosecuted."

Traffic Demands Good Road.

There was a large attendance at the Coast Highway meeting here Friday. Walter Sandelin and other State and Federal officials were in attendance besides county officers. Another meeting was also held at Point Arena. Shoreline Highway officials point out that, between 1934 and 1941, traffic on Shoreline Highway increased over 70 percent, according to traffic counts taken by the State Division of Public

NEW BUSINESS DEMANDS NEED NEW BUILDING

Increases Continue In All Willits Lines Of Trade

3 STORE HOMES GO UP

Two Lumber Plants Are Now Nearing Completion

Special Correspondence of The Press

WILLITS, July 15.—The Northern Wood Products Company started operations here recently and their business has grown so rapidly the Company was forced to obtain more yardage in which to pile their lumber and make room for their planing mill and sash and door factory. The Company first purchased all that portion of the Willits Lumber Company holdings south of Commercial street, with the exception of the mill and they have now purchased the Don Coleman 20-acre tract which lies between the present holdings and the Rodeo grounds, which used to be known as the Northwestern Grove. This tract is an ideal location—It is between Commercial and Valley streets and has a splendid home that will be occupied by a member of the Company. The corporation also intends to erect several more homes on the tract for its employes.

Erecting A Plant.

The W. H. Casteel Lumber Company, which recently purchased a tract of land north of the high school grounds and between Redwood highway and the railroad, has the new planing mill nearly completed and have started construction on several houses for their employes.

Another New Building.

Al Greenberg is having the old Vincent building at the corner of Main and Mendocino streets wrecked and will build a modern store building on the corner, which has already been leased to a well known corporation and will open a branch business upon its completion.

Disposes Of Business.

John Pietronave has sold his cleaning and dyeing business to Douglas Case.

Two More Business Homes.

Harvey Reynolds completed his building on Commercial street, west of the Commercial Hotel, last week, and it will be occupied by the Willits Equipment Service. Mr. Reynolds will start work on the lot west of this property on a structure which will be occupied by the Willits Steam Laundry. The building will be 40x100 feet and is laid out in the most approved fashion.

Auto Court Sold.

Mayor Guy Hall has sold the Eleven Oaks Auto Camp to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd B. Marshall of Montana.

COAST PLANTS CREWS IGNORE A PICKET LINE

Men Flock Into Mill At Fort Bragg On Monday Morning

COMMUNITY REJOICES

MILLS AT SCOTIA RUN

(Special Correspondence of The Press)

SCOTIA, July 15.—The mill on one side started here this morning with something over 300 men at work. There was no trouble, other than ineffectual picketing. At noon both sides of the plant were operating, additional workers have come on to the job since the start Monday morning.

Today's Conditions.

ROCKPORT, July 16. — There was no trouble experienced here since the mill reopened. More men are at work today (Tuesday) than yesterday.

FORT BRAGG, July 16.—More men working today than yesterday. Conditions are quiet and a gradual increase of employment is seen.

CASPAR, July 16.—Things are quiet here. The increase in men is material. The plants are operating nicely.

SCOTIA, July 16.—There has been no trouble at Scotia. At quitting time last night more than 300 were in the plant working. A noticeable pick-up in employment is developing.

Special Correspondence of The Press

FORT BRAGG, July 16. — The Union Lumber Company plants are operating. They started off with an unexpectedly large response, from men anxious to go to work, but who had not been able to do so because of the strike.

Came Right In.

Immediately after the Union Lumber Company main mill whistle was heard a stream of men began to flow onto the mill reservation and throughout the morning more and more men desiring to end their enforced unemployment continued to filter through to the plants and it was only a short time before it became certain ample crews would be available to resume capacity operations.

Ignored Picket Lines.

The striking Unionists maintained picket lines, but the men, wishing to return to work, went right past the pickets. There was no disturbance worth while reported, as droves of men, afoot and in automobiles, kept going into the plant and were assigned jobs.

Old-Time Activity.

Logs began coming in, the main mill was operating and the planing mill was working. A spirit of rejoicing over the ending of the long controversy was found about town. People are glad the trouble is over and there does not appear any inclination on the part of the people to permit any interference with a continuation of friendliness.

Letter Reflects Feeling.

Into the Union Lumber Company offices Monday morning came the letter reproduced below, which reflects the happy feeling that prevails. The letter, addressed to one of the Mill officials, reads:

"The residents of Fort Bragg were awakened at 5:30 Monday morning from their slumber by a sound that had not been heard for six months—three long blasts of the mill whistle, which had been silenced since January 14. At 6 o'clock the same morning came another blast or two and lumberjacks, who had been idle six months, hurriedly put on their working clothes and started for the mill, happy in the thought the payroll is here again. Despite the fact that all gates were picketed, the mill workers streamed through afoot and in automobiles. Fallers, buckers, peelers and hooktenders headed for the woods. At 7 o'clock came another blast of the same mill whistle and machinery was warming up. Machinery which had not moved since the beginning of the strike. A few minutes later what is known as the south-side rig of the sawmill sliced the first slab from a giant redwood log as easily as an expert carver would slice an outside, well-done cut, from a roast of beef."

IS IN CHICAGO

Gunnar Spjuth left last week for Chicago where he will attend a family reunion. Mr. Spjuth came to Mendocino county nearly 50 years ago and first located in Willits where he had a harness and saddlery business but after automobiles put that line out of business Mr. Spjuth went to Talmage and had charge of the upholstering department at the State Hospital. He held that position more than 30 years and was retired last year.

IT IS BUDGET TIME

THERE CAME INTO The Republican Press commercial printing department this week the copy to be used in preparing the Budget for Mendocino County. Here and in many other communities of the State of California the Boards of Supervisors are preparing their budgets for the next fiscal year. And this is the time, therefore, when citizens should be especially alert as to the items that are included in those budgets. Demands on local government treasuries have increased enormously in recent years. This is due, to some extent, to the swift rise in population up and down the State. But there are other reasons. One of these is the undertaking of ambitious civic programs for construction of impressive war memorials or other projects, which, while desirable enough, if they could be afforded, are actually beyond the financial capacity of many communities to properly handle. Such programs are bound to result in higher real estate taxes or in the imposition of special levies such as sales taxes. The tax burden on real estate and on business concerns is already very heavy and should not be further increased unless it is absolutely unavoidable. In fact, more effort should be made in every community to find ways of keeping expenses down than of pushing taxes up. The task of local councils is not easy, pressed as they are between demands for enlarged civic services and the necessity of holding down taxes. The important thing is, however, that they insist on rigid economy, permitting only a minimum expenditure of the taxpayer's money consistent with the public safety and welfare.

JUST COMMON ROBBERY

CALIFORNIA UNEMPLOYMENT compensation payments have become a "petty racket," the California Manufactuhers Association charges. In letters to officers of the United States Employment Service, Association Vice-President Alvin E. Hewitt said compensation is being paid "lazy thousands" while thousands of jobs go begging. "The inefficiency of the United States Employment Service, plus deliberate misrepresentation of the California unemployment compensation act, have together encouraged unnecessary unemployment and cost the already over-burdened taxpayers millions and millions of dollars," Vice-President Hewitt's letter said.

Administrators of the act have "fostered an attitude that unemployment compensation money is a bank deposit payable on demand," Mr. Hewitt added, "instead of insurance to be available in case of need."

In a precedent-making decision, which halted would-be shakers-down of the public and which grew out of the machinists' strike in San Francisco last fall, signed by members of California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board, the Board's decision denied insurance to a claimant who refused to cross a picket line during the machinists' strike. Evidence in the case, members of the Board said, indicated the claimant refused to avail himself of police protection to pass through a picket line with the statement: "I didn't feel I wanted a police escort to go to work." The evidence further indicated other workers escorted into the plant by police were not molested and the claimant did not attempt to join the group. Members of the Appeals Board, composed of Toland C. McGettigan, chairman, Michael B. Kunz and Hiram W. Johnson 3rd, said claimant's refusal to cross the picket line was a voluntary choice and, therefore, under previous State Supreme Court decisions, claimant is barred from receiving insurance.

Roland A. Vandergrift, legislative auditor, said chiseling and unethical collection of jobless benefits were shocking. "As an instance of the effect of loose granting of unemployment insurance, there are 37,000 unemployed in the Los Angeles area, yet recently only 11 answered calls to pick citrus fruits."

A VICIOUS PROPOSAL

(The San Francisco Examiner)

UNDER THE EUPHONIOUS TITLE of National Science Foundation, a bill is now being considered by Congress which, if passed, would extend, increase and aggravate under Federal protection and encouragement, the needless bestialities in laboratories known as vivisection.

Conceived, written, presented and promoted by radical materialists, advocated by the leftist Senator Kilgore of West Virginia, the law would in effect undo those humane restraints on vivisection that enlightened opponents to the BARBAROUS PRACTICE have gradually brought to bear against indiscriminate sadism masquerading as research.

Fortunately, considerable opposition has arisen against the Kilgore Bill.

LED BY REPRESENTATIVE LEMKE, OF NORTH DAKOTA, PROTESTS HAVE GATHERED IN VOLUME AND HAVE MATERIALIZED IN AMENDMENTS READY TO BE PRESENTED.

* * *

Why, then, at this late hour, does this outworn, discredited and revolting idea come up again to plague all decent people with its bloody connotations?

WHY IS IT SO VEHEMENTLY SUPPORTED BY COMMUNISTS, PINKS AND JUST PLAIN, EVERYDAY GULLIBLE FELLOW TRAVELERS?

Because there is a school of thought nowadays that sedulously apes and applauds the least action or intention of Soviet Russia, no matter in what field: politics, organization, economy, the arts and, of course, the sciences.

The Communist state, lagging far behind democratic America in all technology, as well as in social advantages, has plunged into an extravagantly ballyhooed program of scientific research.

How retarded their progress is, compared with ours, can be gauged from the fact that by ukase and dictation, their biology is still fumbling around with the fallacy that what works on a dog also must work on a human.

Hence, they are still torturing live animals in the laboratory to confirm facts that American and European researchers long ago demonstrated and proved.

HENCE, THEY ARE STILL APPARENTLY BLIND TO THE HARD FACT THAT VIVISECTION IS NOT ONLY CRUEL BUT ALSO PROFITLESS AND MISLEADING.

* * *

But, since in the minds of our Communist sympathizers, nothing that Russia does can possibly be wrong, the Soviet policy of giving carte blanche to vivisectionists seems Utopian perfection.

That it represents the GROSSEST MATERIALISM, the most DEPRAVED INSTINCTS, a DEAD END OF STUDY and a NEGATION OF SCIENCE, never occurs to them.

And yet, that is what vivisection is.

It has been refuted by true science, condemned by moralists, decried by religion and proved useless in the laboratory.

An enlightened society, a scientific society, has no need of it. Instead, such a society must avoid it to preserve its spiritual health.

That is why the Kilgore Bill must be thrown out of the American Congress, with the hearty aid of all decent and humane people.

FORTUNA IS PUTTING ON HIGH-CLASS SHOW

Top riders and ropers of the country should make the Fortuna Rodeo a real preview of the Pendleton Roundup as they fight the writhing broncs and twisty, tricky Brahmas of Hack Barber's famous string in Fortuna Saturday and Sunday July, 27 and 28. The Barber bucking stock used in the Fortuna show will be the same herd which has been contracted for the great Pendleton show later in the year. And many of the cowboys who rake the sides of the plunging steers and dab their loops on deer-legged colves in Fortuna, will undoubtedly go on to seek national and international fame at the Oregon roundup. In renewing the Fortuna Rodeo for the first time since the start of the war, the Fortuna committee has dug deep to provide every inducement for contestants, both local and national. More than $2400 in prizes, plus the entry fees, will be split among six professional events alone. Besides the bronc busting, steer riding, roping, wild cow milking, etc., ample opportunity will be provided for amateur owners of untried horses in the several stock horse races. Every form of rodeo competition will be represented in the Fortuna arena July 27 and 28, and spectators are guaranteed a carnival of thrills, spills and demonstrations of cowboy skill, which should provide a splendid cross section of rodeo form throughout the entire country for this year.

Sidelights of Sadness

Being incidents connected with California's State Prisons as observed by A. R. O'Brien, editor of The Republican Press, while chairman of the State Board of Prisons of California

WHY CONTINUE A SHAMELESS CONDITION?

No penitentiary in the United States reflects such conditions of waste, mismanagement and immunity from correction as does San Quentin Prison.

An army of women has taken over jobs at San Quentin, which places should be filled by returned Veterans.

As an unblushing example of hepotism a father, wife, son and daughter in one family are reported to be holding down sinecures there.

Presumably the Warden at San Quentin is Clinton P. Duffy, but, in reality, "Major" Hendricks, the Bandmaster, who murdered a veteran, tortured him to the extent of pulling his finger and toenails out and left him, trussed up so a tide would drown him, is the last word at The Point.

I talked today with one of the Veteran guards of San Quentin who lately resigned and, upon being asked by Warden Clinton P. Duffy why he had quit, told the Warden he refused to work in a prison which the inmates ran. Warden Duffy puffed up and said: "I am warden here." To which the resigning guard said: "You think you are, but it has come to such a pass Inmates demand being put to bed and want Guards to kiss them good-night."

Joseph Kretchmer, 65, lifetime murder convict with a "perfect" prison record, committed suicide last week in the San Quentin foundry by swallowing a lye compound used in cleaning boilers. Warden Clinton P. Duffy said Convict Kretchmer passed up many opportunities to get out of prison. He never applied for parole. Warden Duffy said his record was "perfect." From point of age and length of time served he was one of San Quentin's oldest men.

Probably, like the guard who refused to go on, Inmate Kretchmer, seeing the manner in which convicts ran the institution, could not take it.

The past week 13 convicts of San Quentin prison were indicted by the Marin county Grand Jury, and will face trial in the near future in Superior Court. True bills were returned against 11 convicts charged singly as defendants, while a twelfth true bill, signed by Foreman George Whitely, was returned charging two convicts jointly with possession of a nine-inch knife. They were:

Arthur Almarez, possession of a knife with a seven and one-half inch blade;

Joseph A. Grimm, escape from Prison Forestry Camp;

Richard H. Walters, possession of a knife with a five-inch blade.

Paul H. Pargo, possession of a knife with a five and one-half-inch blade;

Lee V. Gibson, possession of a knife with a three-inch blade.

Philip F. Rosales, possession of a knife with a seven and one-half inch blade.

Jack Pickell, assault on another convict;

Howard Murphy, assault on a convict.

Nolan Keller, assault on another convict;

Rex A. Clark, escape from Hunger Creek Prison Forestry Camp.

In days when San Quentin was run as a prison such a staggering list of violators never developed. When prison rules and laws were violated the State Prison Board handled the cases and maintained order inside the prison walls. There is not now a week at San Quentin but what some shocking crime or prison violation does not appear in the newspapers — and many instances are covered up—yet no move is made to oust the most inefficient, egotistical and thoroughly incompetent Warden the State of California ever had.

ASK YOUR WATER HEATER DEALER

He knows how to "size-up" the ELECTRIC Water Heater to fit your home!

In today's living there is need for greater and greater use of hot water. Many modern homes have both showers and bathtubs. Linoleum floors and white woodwork also call for plenty of hot water in housecleaning. Now the new automatic washing machines, just coming on the market, will call for additional use of hot water. The electric dishwasher, too, will be a new user of more hot water. Modern homes must install larger water heaters, more than 30-gallons storage capacity. Be wise, talk things over with your electric dealer. He knows that the average home needs at least a 40 or 50-gallon electric water heater.

SAFEGUARDING IS BEING URGED

The Forestry Officials Warning Season Is Dangerous One

A meeting of the Control Burning Committee of Mendocino county with the State Division of Forestry resulted in a proposed program of fire prevention for Mendocino county. The meeting held on July 1, was attended by officials of the Division of Forestry and the control burning committee headed by Frank C. Clarke, chairman of the committee. Officials from the larger mills in the county were also present.

All Gone Over.

Methods of combating menace of wild fires were discussed in order individual ranchers could plan and put into effect their own operations for control burning. The removal of fire hazards was taken up and it was brought out records for this year show more ranchers and lumbermen doing spring clean-up burning than ever before. It was also shown much good work can be done in the late fall after the first rains, to clean up the hazard areas. Each rancher has his own problem on his ranch and the solution of his predicament depends on his planning.

To Teach Methods.

An educational committee was formed with John Taylor, Superintendent of Schools, Russell Foote, Farm Advisor, and William A. Jamieson, Assistant Ranger, for the purpose of acquainting all people in Mendocino county, whether residents or tourists, with the problem of fire control and the dangers of wild, uncontrolled fires.

Individuals Must Act.

It was also pointed out the control of fires will have to be thrown more upon the individual property owners than before. Federal agencies such as the CCC and Army and Navy help will not be available for use by the Division this year. There has been organized 16 volunteer groups throughout the county to fight fire in their own localities; however, it will be only active co-operation from property owners that will prevent a bad fire season. As state law places responsibility of fire control to the fullest extent on the property owner, all property owners should be especially careful fires do not start on their land.

If you fail to read The Republican Press you will not get all of the news of Mendocino county.

Heads Up! It's FARM SAFETY WEEK JULY 21-27

More deaths have occurred in agricultural work in a five-year period than in any of the other five major industrial groups! This startling figure is due to the increased mechanization on farms. But there are other causes of death and injury.

They run as follows, with their percentage of incidence shown:

Machinery Injuries	39%
Injuries from Livestock	21%
Falls	12%
Other injuries caused by heat prostrations, fire, explosion, etc.	25%

This week can well be spent in checking your safeguards against accident. Don't be a statistic in the accident column!

A meeting of trustees and stewards of the local Community church was held Monday and plans made for a work day at the church set for Saturday, July 20, when a new foundation will be put under the church. All valley men, who can spare a day to help, are asked to come Saturday morning. The ladies of the W. S. C. S. will be on hand to provide a substantial lunch in the church. If the men cannot come for a full day any time they can give will be appreciated. Masonite material to cover the old floor in the church has been offered. It will make a splendid backing for the carpets which have been ordered but, until the foundation, which is in very poor condition, is replaced the other improvements cannot be made. R. M. Batterson and F. W. Clark, who are both experienced builders, are assisting in the plans and also the work. It is hoped a full crew will be on hand to complete the job.

To Improve Grounds.

The fence in front of the church will also be moved out on the line of the highway and the grounds leveled off to provide a playground for children of the community to keep them off the street and out of the dangers of heavy traffic.

The tax funds expended in bringing the fire under control amounted to over $700, which, according to law, Mr. Beal is liable to the taxpayers of the State to make reimbursement. The State Fire Control agents had been investigating the circumstance of this fire since it originated in September.

Shortages are holding him back

We in the Bell System were adding telephones at the rate of three million a year until shortages started getting worse. Now it's harder and harder for us to get materials for manufacturing and building.

We aren't complaining for we are in the same boat as every one else. But we thought you might like to know the supply situation on some of the biggest items in the telephone business.

LEAD—There is a world shortage of lead. Even when conditions here straighten out, it will be some time before adequate supplies are available.

COPPER—In great demand but we will probably have adequate supplies when the smelting, refining and fabricating plants get going.

TEXTILES—Serious shortage of cotton and synthetic yarns and fabrics, with demand greatly exceeding supply.

STEEL—Steel and coal strikes have affected supply in face of unprecedented demand.

RUBBER—Synthetics are in fair supply but natural rubber is on Government allocation.

LUMBER—Scarce supply due to unprecedented demand and dislocation of lumber trade.

BRASS MILL PRODUCTS—Used in Central Office switches and other telephone equipment. Supply will be short until disturbed conditions are settled in the copper industry, permitting brass mills to get back to full-scale production.

It's a tough situation, but we aren't giving up, any more than you have given up trying to get butter or sugar or shirts.

We're doing the best we can with what we've got and hoping these disturbed conditions will end, so we can really go full speed ahead.

O.E.S. GATHER AT WINDSOR WEDNESDAY EVE.

Worthy Matron Leona Mazzoni and her husband, R. F. Mazzoni, Worthy Patron R. O. Foster and his wife, Mrs. Grace Foster, and Mrs. Olive E. Busch, all of Kingsley Chapter No. 58, O. E. S., attended a reception given in honor of Mrs. Hazel Roberts, Deputy Grand Matron of District 13, O. E. S., by Valley Home Chapter No. 182, Mrs. Roberts' home organization at Windsor, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Mazzoni and Mr. Foster being Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron of a Chapter in a neighboring District, No. 10, were guests of honor at the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Foster had a special sentimental interest in the fraternal function because they had served as Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron of Cloverleaf Chapter No. 130 of Cloverdale in District 13 two terms in 1922 and 1923.

R. F. Mazzoni was born at Bodega Bay and Olive E. Busch was born at Guerneville. They considered it a great privilege and pleasure to attend such an important meeting in their native county. Anyone might well be proud of such a noted birthplace as Sonoma county. Its many great advantages includes its fine, fertile soil; its ideal climate, partly oceanic and partly continental in character; its diversified industries; its social and cultural opportunities, and its romantic and historic past. Leaving Marvelous Marin, the visitor is advised:

"Supreme Sonoma next is seen,
The Redwood Empire's chosen queen,
A land where seven flags have waved,
A prize by many nations craved."

At this meeting the Temple of Windsor Lodge No. 81, F. and A. M., was crowded to capacity with probably 200 members of the Order. Representatives of many Chapters of five different Districts were present. Visitors came from San Francisco, San Rafael, Petaluma, Santa Rosa, Napa, Ukiah and Fort Bragg.

Matrons and Patrons present from the five Chapters of District 13 were Flora Rockstrah and Paul Travis, of Valley Home Chapter No. 182 of Windsor; Stella Singmaster and Henry Singmaster, of Gold Ridge Chapter No. 161, of Sebastopol; Marjorie Anderson and Charles Comstock, of Sotoyome Chapter No. 82 of Healdsburg; Jamesina Walker and John Brown, of Cloverleaf Chapter No. 130 of Cloverdale; Ella Kinman and Dr. Westley Rodgers, of Riverview Chapter No. 336 of Healdsburg.

Prominent visiting Matrons and Patrons in attendance were J. M. Decker and Neyda Brown, of Morning Star Chapter No. 61 of Petaluma in District 14, and Maud Gardiner and Linton Whitby of San Rafael. In addition to Hazel Roberts, for whom the reception was given, and Nancy Todd, of Fort Bragg, there were a number of other Deputy Grand Matrons present. The most distinguished guests in attendance were Minnie Seymour Greaves, of Mill Valley Past Grand Matron, and Walter Pedicord, of San Francisco, Past Grand Patron.

The hall was attractively and artistically decorated with beautiful flowers and foliage for the happy occasion.

Worthy Patron Paul Travis introduced Worthy Matron Flora Rockstrah, who in turn presented Juanita Travis as organist for the reception and Past Matrons Clara Owens and Dorothea Anderson, who served as marshals assisted by the 1946 officers of Valley Home Chapter.

Deputy Grand Matron Hazel Roberts was escorted to the East in a very graceful and dignified ceremony. She was becomingly attired in a beautiful evening gown of printed silk jersey in a lovely red rose pattern with which she wore a charming orchid corsage presented to her by her husband, Charles Roberts, Past Patron of Valley Home Chapter.

The honored official was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and valuable gifts. The presentations were made in various original methods, some of which were sweetly sentimental and reminiscent, others of which were very amusing.

An interesting program was presented for the entertainment of the large audience. A cordial welcome was extended by the presiding Worthy Matron Flora Rockstrah. The Past Grand Matron Minnie Seymour Graves gave an inspiring talk during the course of which she described a recent visit to Mexico. Interesting and instructive talks were also made by Past Grand Patron Walter Pedicord and Past Grand Treasurer Esther Serel. Mrs. Serel was leaving in a few days for Ontario to visit Past Grand Matron Mary Warner, who is now president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Warner is equally beloved in both organizations.

Beautiful vocal solos were rendered by Neyda Brown, Worthy Matron of Morning Star Chapter No. 61 of Petaluma, and Clarence Aaron, a well known radio singer. The latter was accompanied by a talented musician who also rendered in a very artistic manner her own interpretation of a beloved hymn.

The talk of Deputy Grand Matron Hazel Roberts was constantly interrupted by continued applause. Mrs. Roberts said she and Irene Miller of Ukiah were initiated into Kingsley Chapter together in 1929. Mrs. Roberts was Ruth and Mrs. Miller was Martha in the local Chapter in 1930. Mrs. Roberts says she plans to attend the meeting of Kingsley Chapter December 2, when Irene Miller will be installed as Worthy Matron.

The meeting closed with a reverent rendition of "The Lord's Prayer" by the vocalist, Clarence Aaron. Social affairs scheduled for the vacation period which representatives of the local Chapter hope to attend are the Garden Party of Clover Leaf Chapter at Cloverdale August 13, and the reception for Deputy Grand Matron Nancy Todd, Fort Bragg, September 7. The Garden Party at Cloverdale was initiated by Worthy Matron Grace Foster and Worthy Patron R. O. Foster during their terms of office and has been a regular feature of that Chapter's annual schedule ever since.

After adjournment delicious refreshments were served in the banquet room of the I. O. O. F. Hall at tables beautifully decorated with huckleberry foliage and magnolia blooms. Cora Gulshall served as chairman of refreshments and decorations and Clara Owens was general chairman of the meeting.

The Ukiah party stopped for a midnight supper at Cloverdale, concluding a very delightful evening passed together by a most congenial lot of friends and fellow members of Kingsley Chapter.

Club Wants Members.

The Fort Bragg Chamber of Commerce has started a membership drive which should result in a 100 percent membership increase among businessmen and merchants in and around Fort Bragg.

Housing Need Is Critical.

The housing shortage in Fort Bragg is critical and an effort is now being made to give preference to returned veterans.

Mrs. Lester Cavanaugh and son came up from San Francisco for a visit.

Mervin Ellison has returned from a visit to Yosemite Park and other places in the southland.

Walter Ruska is visiting his brother and family at Berkeley.

Have A New Plan.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars have adopted a new plan to increase attendance at their meetings and it is a great success. They have started a jackpot and every lady contributes a quarter, but every member holds a number, and if the lucky number is drawn by one present that person gets the pot, and if absent it rides to the next meeting. They now have a nice sum in the kitty.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gilbert and daughter came up from Oakland to visit W. D. Brewer who has been ill.

Mrs. Linnie Frey came up from San Francisco for a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. Martha Waldo and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Williams are here from Seattle visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ryan.

Where Big Berries Grow.

Mrs. Stella Howe has returned from her visit in the Puget Sound area where she reports having eaten strawberries as large as apricots.

Another Story Added.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Story resided in Fort Bragg and Point Arena a few years ago and then moved to Bakersfield and last week word was received here that, on July 3, the twenty-second child was born to this couple. They have 20 children living. Doctors in attendance say the new arrival is a perfect specimen of a good healthy baby. The story in the news did not say whether the new Story was a boy or girl—however, it is presumed, it is getting to be an old story, to the Storys.

Went Back To Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rose have returned to their home in Arlington, Colorado, following a two weeks' visit here with Mr. Rose's brother and sister.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Dahl and son have returned to their home in San Francisco following a visit here with Dr. Allen's mother and friends.

Alfred Morley has received his discharge from the Navy following two years of service and is now employed at the Steam Laundry.

Made Sizeable Donation.

Gift of $500 in the form of a check from Mrs. Mabel E. Eisler, of Lodi, for improvements to the Clubhouse of the Little River Improvement Club was received last week by Mrs. Alice Merrill and turned over to the club's officers Mrs. Laura Wolfe, president; Mrs. Ida Chisholm, vice-president, and Mrs. Emma Marks, secretary. Mrs. Eisler and her daughter, Mrs. Elda Hargis, also of Lodi, have a cabin at Little River and have been interested in the club some time. The money is to be used for redecorating the clubhouse as soon as materials are available. The clubhouse serves as a general meeting place for the residents of the Little River area for social and club gatherings during the winter months.

Challenge Valley Aeries.

Fort Bragg has started a membership drive and has issued a challenge to the Aeries at Ukiah and Willits with the understanding that the Aerie that gains the largest membership has to be treated to a big fed by the losers. The challenge has been accepted and the contest is on. Plans for the annual picnic were discussed but the date and place have not been set.

Married Louisiana Man.

Miss Linda Franceshi and Herbert McGinty were married at an elaborate ceremony at the Catholic church, Rev. Fr. Adrian O'Reilly officiating. The bride was raised here and the groom is a member of a prominent Louisiana family. The young couple met while attending Stanford University. The church was transformed into a fragrant garden of white flowers. At the kneeling altar were two tall baskets of gladioli. The all-white flower arrangement in the lovely little church, together with the bridal group, was beautifully impressive. Little Miss Leslie Rowe, in a quaint full-length gown of blue, preceded the bridal party, scattering pink rose petals, along the aisle. Following came the maid-of-honor, Miss Ursula Vance, of Reno, Nevada, in light blue, carrying small pink calla lilies. Then followed the bridesmaids, Luella Reach, of Santa Rosa, and Jackie Goble, of Fort Bragg. The three attendants wore identical dresses of alternating pastel shades of blue, pink and green with long full skirts, fitted bodices and picture hats. They carried old-fashioned bouquets of pink carnations. The bride was lovely in her gown of shimmering white satin, formfitting with a transparent tulle yoke, edged with lace and a full-length train. In her hair was a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of butterfly orchids. Standing with the groom was the bride's brother, Harry. She was given in marriage by her father. A reception followed at the Community Club where 250 guests were assembled to congratulate the happy couple.

ENJOYING A REST AT THEIR RETREAT

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tolman are passing all their spare time at their summer home, "Cozy Cove," on the Lake county road near Blue Lakes. They are now entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Steele, of Vallejo, who are taking a well-earned vacation. Both are former residents of Willits and when the war started moved to Vallejo where Mr. Steele now holds a responsible position on Mare Island. Mrs. Steele used to be a teacher and when the Vallejoites found out she was an educator Mrs. Steele was pressed into service and is now teaching. Mr. Steele is a son of Mrs. Tolman.

HAVE TO LEARN

Good stenogs are as scarce as new cars and nylons, and studies have been launched to find out why. Answer, says the State Department of Education, is that, during the war, with emphasis on quantity rather than quality, anybody could get a job, trained or not. So nobody got trained. Today, with firms clamoring for competent secretaries and bookkeepers, the supply of properly prepared personnel is near an all-time low. A back-to-school move is the sole solution, says the department. Women stenographers, lacking real ability to deliver, will either have to take up some job they can handle, or start in on an extensive brushing up on their educations.

NIGHT POACHERS GET STIFF FINES

Nabbed by state game wardens as they were spotlighting deer, and with deer meat in their possession near Sacred Oak, southeast of Willits, Wednesday night, Harold J. Benish, of Redwood Valley, and Edward L. Cabiness, of Vallejo, were fined $300 each when they appeared before Justice of the Peace Fred Foord at Willits. The two men, who were apprehended by Wardens Floyd Loots, of Willits, G. Heryford, of Ukiah, and Bill Sholes, of Arcata, faced charges of night hunting, spotlighting and possession of deer meat, of which they were guilty, and in addition to the fines their guns and spotlights were confiscated.

UNUSUAL ACTIVITY IN BUILDING NOW

A survey of activities now under way in Lake county would tend to show Lake county, in the two years to follow the resumption of plenty in building supplies, will have at least 3,500 new homes under construction. And, to a figure so high in homes, there must be added a great many resort and other business places. It all awaits more favorable regulations and an uninterrupted resumption of manufacturing of necessary materials.

TO DELAY BUILDING MENDOCINO STRUCTURE

(The Mendocino Beacon)

James Lilly, of Caspar, was in Mendocino Tuesday to attend the regular monthly meeting of the board of high school trustees. Mr. Lilly said the trustees have decided it would not be feasible to plan building the new high school during the present summer and will wait until mtaerials are readily available and construction could go ahead without delay. Tuesday, September 3, has been set as opening date for Mendocino schools.

STUDEBAKERS WINNING FAME

Local Showings Are Being Praised By Ukiahans

The first of the automobile industry's long-awaited 1947 models is now on display in Ukiah. The cars are Studebakers. They can be seen at 585 North State street, says Forrest Hughes, local dealer. Lower, wider and more fully streamlined than any previous automotive design, the cars bear the unmistakable stamp of "true postwar products" both in beauty and performance. "This car could not have been built before the war," said Forrest Hughes. "Progress in manufacturing and engineering has given us greater safety, greater comfort and greater operating efficiency than our prewar knowledge could have made possible. It is not only the first genuine postwar automobile, but an automobile that sets the style for the entire industry. We feel this new Studebaker is the most important contribution to motoring in two decades. Our opinion has been strengthened by the model's reception in public and private previews. At the recent Golden Jubilee Celebration of the automobile in Detroit these cars were the center of attraction. They drew large curb-side crowds wherever they parked. Drivers were besieged by questions. Unbiased newspaper writers have termed it 'the hottest thing on wheels.' They report 'Studebaker has taken the lead'."

ALDER CREEK PLANS TO GROW BRUSSEL SPROUTS

The Alder Creek district is being planted to brussel sprouts. A. E. Frietag says they don't look like much yet but give them time to get their root system going, then with the water from the big reservoir, watch the sprouts grow.

A. A. Clark, P. G. & E. District Manager from Santa Rosa, was here yesterday.

John L. McNab was at the family ranch several days last week.

YOU CANNOT COLLECT CHECK FOR GAMBLING

(The Lakeport Bee)

Judge Benjamin C. Jones recently rendered a decision as to whether or not a check made out for $700 is worth that much in a dice game. The answer is "No." Eight months ago A. L. Barber gave M. O. Pyzer a post-dated check for $700 in payment of a gambling debt. Mr. Barber then stopped payment on the check. Mr. Pyzer filed suit through his attorney. Judge Jones held a gambling debt cannot be collected.

METHODIST CHURCH IN A SALE OF PROPERTY

(San Rafael Independent)

Sale of San Rafael's pioneer church edifice, with the Fourth street property on which stands the 65-year-old Methodist church was reported today. M. J. Stern, owner of the Golden Gate Furniture Co. at Fourth and Lootens Place, purchased the property for $35,000 and will take possession as soon as details of the transaction are concluded and the church congregation finds a meeting place to be used until a new church can be built.

GOES TO U. C.

Betty Jean Oldham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Oldham, of Cloverdale, was graduated recently from Santa Rosa Junior College and will enter University of California this fall. The graduate is a grand-niece of the late Mrs. C. B. Hopkins (Lucia Cleveland) of Ukiah.

NETO HOTEL BECOMES BUT A COAST MEMORY

One of the old familiar landmarks on West Main street, Mendocino, is undergoing a transformation. It was once the Neto Hotel. The original lobby and bar room, which was flush with the sidewalk on the front of the house, has been removed and a smaller sun room added. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Neto operated the hotel many years in the early days of Mendocino history and it was a busy spot. Many woodsmen came in to spend the winters and made this hotel their home. Only oldtimers can realize the great changes that have taken place since those busy times, when mill and woods were running full capacity and all shipping and transportation was made by boat. Truly the good old days, but time marches on!

LONE NAVIGATOR GOT THE SEA CREEPS

Sam "Spud" Iversen has sold his trucking business to "Bud" Collins and bought a 26-foot fishing boat, "The Delores." He brought her into Arena Cove from Sausalito Wednesday. Mr. Iversen covered a lot of ocean during the war, but it never looked as big or as deep as when he got out alone in his own boat.

Ray Shannon, Superintendent of the Union Lumber Co., was over from Fort Bragg last week.

LITTLE SHAVERS TO "TELL IT TO JUDGE"

(The Willits News)

Four Willits youngsters, ages seven to fourteen, are slated to appear before juvenile authorities in Ukiah as a result of damage they allegedly committed recently at the home of Calvin Lewis, one mile northeast of Willits. The children, who have admitted their guilt, according to police, set three fires in the Lewis home in addition to creating considerable damage to furnishings. Neighbors extinguished the fires before they had time to destroy the structure, police said, and the youngsters were subsequently apprehended and turned over to county authorities who investigated the case. Three weeks prior to the escapade the children allegedly broke into another Lewis home and stole a rifle which was left in another person's care for safekeeping. Local police recovered the rifle. Parents of the group were asked to appear with them before the authorities.

M. C. Frailey, Vice-President of the Greyhound Stages Company, was here Friday and dropped in to see A. R. O'Brien while here.

Mr. Mason gave an enlightening and complete report of the two-day session of the recent California Fish & Game Commission meeting. The barbecue to be given Sunday, July 21, at Mill Creek State Employes' Picnic Grounds, is progressing favorably. Chef de la Barbecue Freitas reports reservations are coming in splendidly and "she sure is going to be a dilly." President George David has appointed C. I. Mason, Chairman of Entertainment, with R. Davis and D. Donati assistants.

Mrs. Amy Mitten was down from Rancho Mariposa Friday afternoon.

Covelo Will Put On A Fine Anniversary Occasion

eral days with Miss McClanahan's aunts, Mrs. May Conner, Mrs. Lil Hemenway and Mrs. Mary Shields. The party is making an automobile tour of the United States and decided to see Covelo with its added attraction — the aunts and other relatives.

He Flew Here.

Lloyd Grist, of Healdsburg, nephew of Mrs. Albert Brown, Sr., flew into Covelo Tuesday, visited relatives and had luncheon with Mrs. Russell Crockett. His instructor accompanied him and they returned to Healdsburg that evening.

Came From Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gunderson and little son, Wayne, who have been visiting the past three weeks with relatives and friends in Covelo, returned to their home in Berkeley this week. Mrs. Gunderson is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Brown of Covelo.

Robert Lovejoy and daughter, Marjerianne, of Santa Rosa, visited relatives in Covelo over Saturday and Sunday of last week.

Father Passed Away.

This week Mrs. Elmer Goforth learned of the death of her father at Klamath Falls. Tuesday her brother came in from Oakland and took her and her husband, Elmer Goforth, over the mountain to Klamath Falls to arrange for the funeral.

Long Were Married.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gray, of Covelo, have walked life's pathway together 50 years and the members of the church are sponsoring a Golden Wedding anniversary celebration for them in which they wish everyone to join. They have set August 3 for the date though the exact wedding anniversary is July 29. Mr. and Mrs. Gray's sons cannot get here for that date so the time was set later.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton English, of Los Gatos, visited several days last week with Mrs. English's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rome in Covelo.

He Is Discharged.

David Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Terry, of Covelo, who has served in the Navy since June, 1945, was recently discharged from service at Camp Shoemaker.

Goes To Stanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Worthington left Sunday morning for Palo Alto. Donald Jones, brother of Mrs. Worthington, left that Sunday evening for the same city, where he will receive instruction in carpentry from Mr. Worthington.

To Miss Den Brush.

In the passing of Den Brush last week, Covelo lost a familiar figure on its streets and many people a kind friend. We shall miss him among the familiar faces of his old friends in the places they used to gather and visit.

"Large was his bounty, and his soul sincere;
Heaven did a recompense as largely send;
He gave to Misery all he had—a tear,—
He gained from Heaven, 'twas all he wished—a friend.
No farther seek his merits to disclose,
Or draw his frailties from their dread abode,
(There they alike in trembling hope repose)
The bosom of his Father and his God."

Back From Conference.

The young ladies, Artie Winters, Stella Stockton, Jean Scott, Glenna Barrass and Catherine Rome, Kings Daughters of Covelo, who attended the Conference at Westminster Woods, report a very pleasant time and will tell us about it in the near future.

Are Now Settled.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Buhrer and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, Jr., have moved into their new home recently purchased from C. H. Lovell.

They Are Fishing.

Dr. Harold Palmer, of Oakland, arrived in Covelo Wednesday and in company with H. Rhyme and son-in-law, went on a fishing trip to the Henthorn Lakes region and Eel River. Friday, Joe and Cecil Williamson left Covelo to join the party.

Have Gotten Home.

Mrs. Eileen Chappell and daughters, Patricia and Carolyn, of Mountain View, come to Covelo Friday. She brought Mrs. Henry Haydon and little daughter, Terry Lee, home from San Francisco.

THEY LEFT UKIAH IN A GOOD MIND FRAME

The other evening T. L. McCullough, of The Riverside Press, and Lee Shippey, who has a column in The Los Angeles Times, dropped in on A. R. O'Brien. Mrs. McCullough and Mrs. Shippey accompanied them. They wanted rooms at Santa Rosa and Mr. O'Brien got them fixed up nicely and they went on their way. Yesterday there came a copy of The Los Angeles Times containing this bow in Mr. Shippey's column: "We'd been moteling for three nights when we reached Ukiah and yearned for a real hotel room with a real tub bath in it. We liked Ukiah and Editor A. R. O'Brien of The Republican Press so much we would have liked to stop there but Santa Rosa was our goal for the night and Mr. O'Brien phoned ahead to make sure we would get rooms at The Occidental. I'd always wondered about the name of Ukiah — thought maybe it was named for a brother of Hezekiah —but the name was Indian and Ukiah was just what was left of it after Yank tongues had mangled it. All about there the fruit orchards are as lovely as they are in Santa Clara county and vineyards grow up young mountainsides in a way that reminds one of Switzerland. There and in Napa county they are proud of the fact some of their oldest and best wineries have not sold out to the hard-liquor trust. Oh boy! How good that hotel room was, and what a dinner we got after we cleaned up. Scenery is wonderful, but there are times when nothing thrills you like a steak. As we rolled on through the hills of California, we felt nothing else on earth could look as beautiful and no other place could have so much to offer."

FOUR ATTENDING AT MONTEREY THIS WEEK

With the California High School Cadet Corps summer encampment entering its second week at Fort Ord, near historic Monterey, Ukiah high school's four cadets attending are Jean Coleman, James Hamilton, Paul Helman and George Portlock.

ON FISHING TRIP

Joe Bell, of Monterey, who is with the United States Employment Service at that place, was a guest of the Ryans at Ryanscourt in Talmage. Messrs. Williams, Bell and Ryan enjoyed three days fishing at Lake Pillsbury over the Fourth of July holidays and Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Ryan passed some days in San Francisco.

TRUCK DRIVER IS KILLED IN WRECK

Thrown about 200 feet to the bottom of a ravine from the cab of a tractor-trailer reported to have jack-knifed after he had applied brakes on the vehicle at a causeway north of Lane's Flat, Leroy Morris, PMT truck driver, was killed Saturday night. It is believed, when the driver set the air brakes on the vehicle while descending the hill approaching the causeway, the trailer jack-knifed and in so doing threw the heavy truck out of control so it sideswiped a car being driven by Clyde Morris, of Washington, who was accompanied by his wife. The tractor came to a halt after part of it lunged off the bridge and hung there. Mrs. Morris was painfully but not seriously hurt in the mishap. The dead truck driver is survived by his widow and three children.

CANNERY AGENT IS CONTRACTING PEARS

First signs of Lakeport's pear season were seen Monday when George A. Chew, representative of the Santa Clara Packing Company, came to town, says The Lakeport Bee. Mr. Chew came to make arrangements for buying cannery pears. It is reported a sale with the Lake Cove Growers was completed by Mr. Chew. Each year the Santa Clara Packing Company sends a fleet of trucks into this district.
